Here's how the Catholic Church fulfills the prophecy of Daniel 7:25, that it would think to change God's times and laws. There's only one commandment that deals with time, it's the Sabbath commandment, which commands us to "Remember" a specific period of time for worshipping God. Now notice what Rev. Peter Geiermann, says in the "Convert's Catechism of Catholic Doctrine" p.50

Q. Which is the Sabbath day?
A. Saturday is the Sabbath day.

Q. Why do we observe Sunday instead of Saturday?
A. We observe Sunday instead of Saturday because the Catholic Church transferred the solemnity from Saturday to Sunday."

Notice: God did NOT change the day, the Catholic Church has changed it!

Listen to what Priest Brady said in an address, reported in the Elizabeth, NJ 'News' on March 18, 1903. "It is well to remind the Presbyterians, Baptists, Methodists, and all other Christians, that the Bible does not support them anywhere in their observance of Sunday. Sunday is an institution of the Roman Catholic Church, and those who observe the day observe a commandment of the Catholic Church."

The words Jesus spoke in Matthew 15:9 are quite fitting here.

Matthew 15:9
"But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

Albert Smith, Chancellor of the Archdioceses of Baltimore, replying for the Cardinal, in a letter dated February 10, 1920 said, "If Protestants would follow the Bible, they would worship God on the Sabbath Day. In keeping the Sunday they are following a law of the Catholic Church."

Here's a quote from "Monsignor Louis Segur, in 'Plain Talk about the Protestantism of Today', p. 213.

"The observance of Sunday by the Protestants is homage they pay, in spite of themselves, to the authority of the [Catholic] Church."

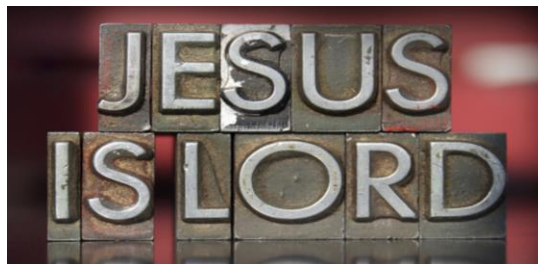

In other words, no matter what denomination you are, if you keep Sunday, you are giving your allegiance to the authority of the Catholic Church, instead of giving your allegiance to God.

"Perhaps the boldest thing, the most revolutionary change the Church ever did, happened in the first century. The holy day, the Sabbath, was changed from Saturday to Sunday. "The Day of the Lord" was chosen, not from any directions noted in the Scriptures, but from the Church's sense of its own power. .. People who think that the Scriptures should be the sole authority, should logically become 7th Day Adventists, and keep Saturday holy."

Written in the Sentinel, Pastor's page,
Saint Catherine Catholic Church, Algonac, Michigan, May 21, 1995.

Do you want to keep Sunday and pay homage to the Catholic Church, or do you want to follow God and Remember the Sabbath day as He commanded?

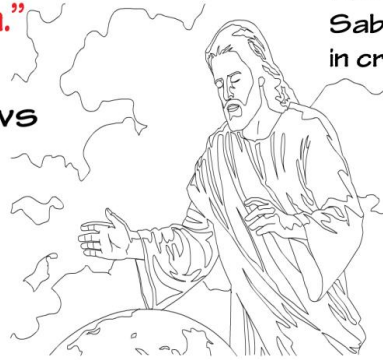

The choice should be clear, and I pray you choose to follow Jesus and worship Him on His Holy, Seventh-day Sabbath, which always has been, and always will be, Saturday.

God rested on the 7th day of Creation, not because He was tired, but as an example for His people to follow.

Mark 2:27,
"The Sabbath was made for man."

Not for the Jews

Abraham, the father of the Jewish nation, ... was born some 2,500 years after the Sabbath was given to man in creation.

Therefore the Seventh-day Sabbath was given to man
2,500 years before the Jewish nation ever existed.

Jesus and His disciples kept the 7th day Sabbath, and no man on earth has the authority to change God's law. It was written by God Himself, on tables of stone.

Hebrews 4:1-11 says the 7th day Sabbath still remains today. And we should enter into that Sabbath rest, lest we fall from unbelief.

Isaiah 66:22-23 says the Sabbath will be kept in heaven, and on the earth made new, which is exactly what you would expect to see, because God never change the day!

The commandment says, “Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord Blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it.” Exodus 20:8-11

In our next segment, you’ll learn another astonishing way that the Catholic Church has thought to change God’s Holy Law.
